

News Release

For more information:

Holly Mattson, Executive Director (holly@accredit-id.org)

Telephone 616.458.0400

April 24, 2009

Three Interior Design Students Honored with Keith Hooks Scholarships

The Council for Interior Design Accreditation (CIDA) is pleased to announce the recipients of the Keith Hooks Scholarship award:

Elizabeth Charney of Miami University, Miami, Ohio

Roselyn Rheame of Kwantlen University College, Richmond, British Columbia

Ginny Uyesugi of California College of the Arts, San Francisco, California

The scholarship fund honoring long-time CIDA volunteer leader and interior designer Keith Hooks was established in his memory in 2008. Each junior-level student is receiving $3,000 to be used toward upcoming tuition at a CIDA-accredited interior design program.

“This scholarship rewards promising students who demonstrate the values that Keith Hooks embraced – hard work, integrity, and excellence,” states Leina Zimmerman of Skyline Construction in San Francisco. “Keith’s colleagues and friends are proud to partner with CIDA in honoring the outstanding academic achievements of these award recipients.”

The Council for Interior Design Accreditation is an independent, non-profit, accrediting organization responsible for setting standards and evaluating degree granting interior design programs. Learn more at www.accredit-id.org.

###